

Who's Who in Nonprofits &amp; Foundations

Pamela J. HamlinExecutive Director*
Hutton Foundation

Pam J. Hamlin, an Ohio native, joined Hutton Foundation in May 1996. As executive director of the foundation, her responsibilities include liaison between grant applicants and funding selection committees, advocacy for applicants, evaluation and management of new and special initiatives, coordination and oversight of property management, and support to the foundation president and board.

Prior to joining Hutton Foundation, Hamlin worked for 15 years in the marketing and advertising industry in Atlanta, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. She provided myriad advertising and public relations services to clients, including copywriting, press releases, creative direction, media buying, event planning and management.

Hamlin has held committee and board member positions for several local area nonprofit organizations, including Noah's Anchorage YMCA, Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History, Santa Barbara Zoological Gardens, Channel Islands YMCA, Santa Barbara Rape Crisis Center, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Storyteller Children's Center and Family Service Agency. She currently serves as president of the Nonprofit Support Center.

Hamlin is a graduate of Bowling Green State University. She loves to hike, travel, sail, cook, quilt and spend time with friends and family.
